Dear Mr. deGraffenreid:

On 5 May 1983, [redacted] from our Office of Security, and [redacted] our Associate General Counsel for Administrative Law Division, provided you with a copy of my memorandum to the Acting Director of Central Intelligence, dated 7 April 1983, outlining the Agency's existing policies and regulations with regard to the implementation of National Security Decision Directive 84 (NSDD-84). That memorandum, a copy of which is enclosed at Tab A, constituted my response to your April letter in which you asked the CIA to submit to you implementing regulations on NSDD-84. Attached to my memorandum were copies of the following nondisclosure agreements and extracts of Agency regulations that specifically address the major requirements of NSDD-84:

Also included in this package was a proposed Agency regulation that discussed policies and procedures on damage assessments. For your convenience, I am again providing copies of these documents at Tab B.

In response to your letter of 10 June 1983, I am enclosing at Tab C a copy of [] Agency Information Security Program, which should have been included with the submission provided by Messrs. [] on 5 May 1983. This regulation includes sanctions that may be imposed upon Agency personnel, contractors, licensees, and grantees, who knowingly, willfully, or negligently disclose classified information to unauthorized persons. [] also provides that the Agency notify the Director, Information Security Oversight Office (ISOO) of such disclosures, in accordance with procedures established by ISOO whenever an unauthorized disclosure occurs.

Based on our review of the regulations cited above, we believe that the Agency is in compliance with the requirements of NSDD-84 except for the exceptions cited in my 7 April 1983 memorandum. Please let us know if you agree with this assessment and if the cited exceptions fall within the intent of the President's Directive.

Sincerely,

Harry E. Fitzwater
